HELP FAILS AND HE GOES DOWN

William A. Winston Drowned by Boat Capsizing.

Out in Metal Craft Which Filled and Sank—He Could Not Swim and Was Lost.

MANY FRIENDS IN PADUCAH

William A. (Willie) Winston, son of Dr. Rufus R. Winston, residing at 1130 Jefferson street, was drowned in the big lake of the "Chippies" string of lakes near Bayou Mills, Ky., 26 miles above Paducah on the Ohio river, yesterday afternoon about 5:30 o'clock. He was in a boat with a companion preparing to fish when the boat dipped and filled. The young man was unable to swim and the boat being of metal, sank, offering no support. His frantic efforts to keep above water prevented his companion from offering any aid, and he sank from sight after a desperate struggle and drowned.

The story of the tragedy is best told in the brief statement of the grief-stricken companion, Leslie Hale of Greenville, Ky., young Winston's companion.

"A party of five started from Paducah Saturday for Chippies' lakes to fish," he explained. "The party was composed of Mr. Winston, Herbert Martin, J. W. Worrell, of Paducah; Dr. John T. Reynolds, Sr., of Greenville, Ky., and myself. We met another party at Bayou Mills and proceeded to the lakes for sport. We carried with us a double bow, metal, hunting boat.

"Yesterday afternoon about 5:30 o'clock we started to fish. Mr. Winston and I selected the metal boat and pushed out from the bank. There are willows in the Big Lake, and they set out about five feet from the bank. We pushed past the willows and started for the open lake. I was handling the paddle and in some way the boat careened. Water rushed in and I realized we would sink.

"Can you swim?" I asked him, and he replied that he could not. By this time the boat was filled and we were rapidly sinking. We had on our clothes and I realized our desperate position. I shoved out my paddle and told him to hold to it, and started out to swim.

"Winston jerked the paddle out of my hand and began to desperately struggle to keep above water. I saw the hopelessness of his position and of mine if I attempted to grasp him, and struck out for the bank, fully forty feet away.

"Dr. Thompson, another of our party, was across the lake bailing out his boat. He saw the accident, but before he was successful in getting his boat out from the bank the boat sank and he found himself powerless to render assistance.

"Mr. Winston sank and we set about to recover the body. This we did within forty-five minutes. The body was still warm and we rolled it, chafed the hands, arms and lower limbs and did every thing possible to resuscitate him but life was extinct."

Sorrowful Scene.

Dr. J. E. Chippis, who owns the lakes, was sent for but found the young man dead.

Dr. and Mrs. Winston were notified of the accident about 9 o'clock by long distance telephone and the corpse was prepared and brought to Paducah this morning at 10 o'clock on the steamer Royal.

A crowd of sorrowful friends and the young man's father met the boat. The scene was pathetic, and friends who had gathered to see the body and receive definite news of the death turned aside, being unable to stand the pathetic scene of the meeting.

The remains were accompanied to Paducah by Messrs. Hale and Martin, Mr. Worrell and other members of the party remaining at the lakes. They will return, however, as soon as it is possible to pack the camping outfit, the drowning having thrown gloom upon the entire party.

At the wharf the body was turned over to the Paducah Undertaking company to be prepared for burial.

The young man was 26 years old, and the only son of his parents. He was born in Dresden, Tenn., and removed to Paducah with his father eleven years ago. He received his schooling in the Paducah public schools and graduated in the class of '98. He was a bright pupil and a favorite with his teachers and school mates.

After leaving school the young man entered the railroad service, being employed as an accountant in the office of John Donovan, local agent for the Illinois Central. He worked his way to the best positions in the freight service but did not like the work and left it to become a pharmacist.

After a short course of preliminary study in local drug stores he went to Louisville and attended the school of pharmacy, graduating with honors. He returned to Paducah and established himself in business at Tenth street and Broadway.

He sold out two years ago and entered the mercantile business, and for some time had been bookkeeper for the Loeb-Bloom whiskey company of this city.

He was a young man of steady habits and popular with all his friends and acquaintances. News of his drowning came last night in a confused telephone message to his parents. His friends and family were shocked on learning of his death and the news gained general currency in a short time after the report had reached Paducah.

The first definite information relative to the drowning was secured this morning on the arrival of the boat with the body.

He is survived by his parents and one sister, Miss Clare Winston.

The funeral of William A. Winston will take place tonight at 8 o'clock at the residence 1122 Jefferson street. The body will be carried to Dresden, Tenn., tomorrow morning at 7 o'clock for burial. Masons will attend the services.

Greenville, Ky., June 5.—A mob of seventy-five men visited the jail at 1 o'clock this morning and demanded the delivery of Harrison Alexander, a negro, charged with criminal assault on Mrs. George Whitehouse, a white woman of Central City. The alleged offense was committed Saturday afternoon.

Rumors of the visit of the mob caused Sheriff Shiver to take the prisoner from jail about dark and drive to Alton, where he was lodged for safekeeping. This act on the part of the sheriff saved the life of the negro. This is the first mob here for thirty years and it is supposed was formed at Central City where the indignation is intense.

Today Miss Nye brought a second action, naming Dr. Davis as defendant, and asking $20,000 damages. ### EXPERIMENTAL FARM

Will Be Located By Dr. Class at Benton Harbor, Mich.

Dr. H. P. Sights has received a letter from the eminent bacteriologist W. J. Class, saying that he would locate his experimental farm for the investigation of an antitoxine for scarlet fever at Benton Harbor, Mich., on the St. Joseph river. Dr. Class discovered the scarlet fever germ and this experimental farm will be conducted to discover a preventive. Diphtheria has been brought under control largely by the discovery of an antitoxine, and it is hoped to do the same in regard to scarlet fever. Dr. Class was here several months ago on his way to Chattanooga to look over the conditions for a farm there. He also looked over Paducah.

INSPECT ROADS OF GOVERNMENT

Fiscal Court Will Make Journey to Jackson, Tenn.

Every Magistrate Favors Plan for Improving Highways of McCracken County.

JUDGE LIGHTFOOT PLEASED

McCracken county is to have more roads and better roads, in fact, nothing but the best of roads, and preliminaries are being arranged to get a line on the new combination tar, gravel and oil road with which the government is experimenting near Jackson, Tenn.

The magistrates of McCracken county fiscal court are preparing to visit Jackson, Tenn., and personally inspect the new roads and if the roads are successful, and the cost of construction as cheap as claimed, McCracken county will doubtless adopt them.

The present court has shown itself to be the most progressive and up-to-date board the county has ever had. In the language of Judge Lightfoot it is the first board since his administration which has an eye out for progress and the general welfare of the county. Good roads are the best advertisements a county can have, and this is one improvement the county of McCracken has for years worked hard on. The roads now are good, and better instances than those in other Kentucky counties, but the magistrates want the best.

"I have talked with over half the board and every member so far has agreed to go down to Jackson and take a look at the road experiment," a member of the board stated this morning. "The combination road, with which the government is experimenting, is said to be a success beyond a doubt, and is better than bitulith and brick streets by far. It is said they are cheaper than the latter two classes and gather less dirt and dust. are easier to clean and have an advantage in many other ways. We are looking out for the expense, and if we find this kind of road can be built for anything like the price of gravel roads we will build them in McCracken county, I believe."

Judge Lightfoot has always been an advocate of good roads, and is pleased with the plan proposed. Judge Lightfoot contends that good roads, the best public institutions and general progressiveness speaks more for a county or city than any other advertisement possible to secure.

The magistrates probably will arrange to go to Jackson for next week. The idea was advanced over a week ago, but nothing was given out until after the sense of a majority of the board members was known.

GEM TO BE CUT FROM STOMACH

Woman Consents to Operation for Recovery of Stolen Diamond.

Omaha, June 5.—"My baby is ill in Texas and I want to get to her. That is why I will undergo this terrible ordeal."

This was the reason given today by Mae Thomas, who swallowed a stolen diamond, for consenting to have an operation performed for the recovery of the gem. According to the evidence of the X-ray plate the stone lies about one and one-half inches above the vermiform appendix, incased in membrane, tightly clinging to the intestines.

MAY NOMINATE H. CLAY EVANS

Tennessee Republican Convention is Called for July 12.

Nashville, June 5.—H. Clay Evans probably will be nominee of the Republican gubernatorial convention, which the state committee called today to be held in this city July 12. The date originally fixed was August 22, but it was thought advisable to choose an earlier date in order to give more time to the campaign. There is some talk of bringing out G. H. Tillman as a candidate, but it is not likely he will enter the race for the nomination.

PENNANT IN REACH OF WHOLE LEAGUE

Tailenders Are Possibilities of Next Few Weeks.

If Team Work Counts Indians Will Be at Top of Column When Season Closes.

JACKSONVILLE HERE TODAY

Team Standing.	W.	L.	Pct.
Danville	19	13	.594
Vincennes	18	13	.581
Paducah	17	15	.531
Cairo	16	16	.500
Jacksonville	13	18	.419
Mattoon	11	19	.367

Yesterday's Results.
Cairo 6, Jacksonville 4.
Paducah-Mattoon. Rain.
Vincennes-Danville. Rain.

Today's Schedule.
Jacksonville at Paducah.
Mattoon at Cairo.
Vincennes at Danville.

It rained yesterday and the Indians and Hostlers from Mattoon did not play. Both teams were out in uniform but the rain began before either side began to warm up and continued until 4 o'clock. Umpire Bush waited until after the usual thirty minutes and then called "no game."

There were few fans in the grand stand and there was little dissatisfaction among those who went out. The Indians hoped to take the third game and make it two out of three, and Big Freddie Miller was slated to work for the Warriors. "Roundhouse" McCarthy was slated to throw 'em for the Hostlers and it would have been a hot game.

The break in the schedule caused by Mother Nature gave the writer time to "sort 'er look over the situation" and do some figuring. Looking at the team standing the chances of any team in the league for winning the rag is good. In fact nothing can really be told about the comparative strength of the teams.

The Indians, for instance started out as they did last season, taking in everything that came their way. They seemed well up in team work and it is to the Indians' credit that the best team work is chalked. They all give the Indians credit for this, but they say they are weak with the stick. The Indians seemed to be pretty strong hitters at the beginning, but it has to be admitted that some have fallen down, and there is room for betterment in this department.

Mattoon is at the bottom, but it form shows for anything the Hostlers will not be there long. They have good "stickers" among them and during the last games here have shown wonderful improvement in team work. In fact, no fault can be found with the team work. The players are all strong and Mattoon looks anything but a tail-end.

Danville had bad luck in the outset but is now at the top. Vincennes lost some of her chances of getting a good lead by having to take to the road before the Indians did. Cairo also played the first few series with a crippled team and is now playing good fast ball. Jacksonville also is showing better form and the new Illinois towns will make a hard fight for the pennant.

As it is the teams are well bunched and little can be told of what will be the outcome of the next fifteen games. It would not be such a remarkable feat for some of the tail-enders to go to the top, and the Kitty league results are as uncertain as some of the struts pulled off in the Cairo Bulletin office, when "His Jags," "King" Farnbaker, takes on a fresh pill and begins seeing things through the halos of smoke.

Expert accountants in this particular branch of figuring are at a premium, and no one seems to be willing to make a venture.

Dan Wright, a big strapping twirler from the wilds of Ohio state, is here and has spread on war paint. He looks like a valuable addition to the staff of throwers, but has yet to show his gait. Those who know him say he is "there with the goods," and Wright, if he is "right," will show the Jacksonville "Go-Betweens" something to do to bed and sleep over.

Today the bunch that squirted tobacco juice and did everything else unbecoming gentlemen when the Indians visited Jacksonville, is here. Three straight defeats set the "Go-Betweens" to thinking and the best way to get out of the situation was to tell a cock and bull story about the Kentuckians and their moonshine humor and big guns. The joke took and the fans in Jacksonville seemed to believe it, that is from the way the Indians were treated.

Vincennes No Game.
Vincennes, Ind., June 5.—No game was played yesterday on account of rain.

Cairo Wins in Slow Game.
Cairo, Ill., June 5.—The locals out-hit the visitors yesterday and scored at will. The visitors could not handle Way and Morgan.

The score: R H E

Cairo ..... 6 13 2

Danville has a good team, but give Paducah her pitching staff and the Indians will win everything from them. The Old Soldiers are fairly good bitters and field well, but when it comes to team and fast base work they are not in it with Lloyd's men.—Vincennes Capital.

The Cairo Bulletin is the only newspaper in the Kitty league that does not say something real good about some one player in the Kitty league. If anything is credited to a player the writer generally shows up some deficiency, or alleged deficiency. What's the matter anyway; are there no good, thorough, reliable players in the league except Cairo's?

THE DANGERS OF DUST.

We suppose we may assume that the expressed intention of the city government, in conjunction with the Traction company, to sprinkle all the streets upon which rails have been laid, beginning June 1, will be carried out. It is the least the city government can do; it is something the Traction company ought to have done long ago. That much done, it may be possible next year to see to it that the entire city is sprinkled, though we should not wait until next year to offer to the citizens every facility for keeping down the dust.

Some years ago Putnam & Son published an interesting little book by Dr. Mitchell Prudden on "Dust and Its Dangers." "The particles of dust," says the writer, "such as are usually swept into our faces whenever we go upon the streets in New York in dry or windy weather consist largely of small fragments of sand, broken fibres of plants, pollen, fine hairs, the pulverized excreta of various domestic animals, ashes, fibres of clothing and other fabrics, particles of lime or plaster or soot, parts of seeds of plants, masses and clusters of various kinds of micro organisms and other partially ground-up materials of kinds too numerous to mention."

In a like dust-laden atmosphere we live in Louisville. Look up and down any street at any hour of the day and you will realize the impurities of the atmosphere. In cities whose streets are kept decently clean, says Mr. Prudden, there is little danger of harm from the inhalation of germs because of the constant purifying agency of wind and air, and then he adds:

"If, however, the streets of cities be or allowed to remain filthy so that abundant and pretty constant dust clouds are encountered by those passing through them, the streets not properly sprinkled before sweeping either by machine or hand, if ignorant or careless street cleaners are allowed to scatter clouds of dust about them as they sweep or shovel or transport the pulverized filth, the chances of inhalation of dangerous germs are proportionately increased." It is in those clouds of dust that the citizens of Louisville live during the whole summer season.—Louisville Post.

Sanitation Hints.
Good sanitation for 1906 should be your motto.

Clean your premises, keep them clean and sprinkle with lime.

Screen your doors and windows and keep out the housefly, the most dangerous of pests. It carries disease and infection.

The most effective money spent in advertising Paducah will be that spent in cleaning and draining it. Every citizen can help to do this, in their own way.

No mosquitoes, no malaria. A clean city no danger of yellow fever and typhoid.

A Central Park for a good morning breath.

PADUCAH CHURCH FAVORS THE UNION

In Reality Cumberland Presbyterian is Misnomer.

Sessions Said Unanimously to Support Presbyterian Church of United States.

MEETING MAY BE HELD SOON

In reality, a prominent churchman stated, Paducah has no Cumberland Presbyterian church, although the name of the organization has not been changed by the congregation. In the movement for union with the Presbyterian church of the United States this congregation has joined, and it is stated that the session is unanimously in favor of the change.

A church meeting probably will be held some time in the near future when a new name for this church will be adopted, signifying its merger into the new Presbyterian union. In this Paducah is saved a long struggle, which is expected in other places, where the church is divided, and two parties are claiming the title to the property.

The loyalists, as they called themselves, attempted to enjoin the action of the general assembly in uniting with the new Presbyterian church. The delegates, where they were supported by their churches, decided to reorganize the Cumberland general assembly church and carry into it their church property. In some places there is a division on the question, and litigation is expected to follow over possession of the property.

A Direct-dealing plan
That Cuts Out Four Profits
and Much Expense

Here's An Example

of the way the National Cigar Stands save the smoker money

Here's a full, plump Perfecto, made by hand of selected seed-and-Havana leaf. It is just such a cigar as is sold in the average cigar store at 3 for 25 cents; a fragrant, mild, smooth combination that pleases more smokers than any other class of cigars known to the trade. This is its name and trade mark—both will be famous:

BLACK AND WHITE

FIVE CENTS STRAIGHT

This 3 for 25-cent quality at 5 cents is a good example of the result reached by this combination of 2,000 drug store cigar stands into a single, compact, powerful buying concern. It cuts out profits and expenses that have heretofore nearly doubled the cost of cigars. National Cigar Stands now give the same qualities often at half what they used to cost; always for less.

A GOOD TIP

THAT IS THE WAY MAYOR D. A. YEISER LOOKED ON IT.

Is Only a Guest At His Residence in Arcadia, According to Telephone Book.

The way Mayor Yeiser seized on the tip given him by The Sun when he contemplated moving into the country, shows a discriminating appreciation on his part. Saunders Fowler resigned from the board of public works when he went into the country and the same course was planned for the mayor by his political foes when he should take up his residence in Arcadia, but he was too smooth. His brother-in-law, Frank Brown, is master of the house and it would seem that the crafty executive is merely a guest at sufferance. At least, he was wise enough to have the telephone number listed in the name of the city wharfmaster. There are some wily diplomats in municipal politics, but none that can find the Hon. D. A. Yeiser asleep at his post—not when he has a good tip.

TO DEVELOPMENT OFFERS NO CHECK

President Has Own Views In Regard to the West.

Permits Right of Way for Railroad
Through Canyon Reserved For Irrigation.

GIVE WAY TO IMPROVEMENTS

Washington, June 5. — President Roosevelt has recently defined his policy concerning the reclamation work in the west by giving David H. Moffatt, who is building a railroad from Denver to Salt Lake, a right of way through Gore Canyon of the Grand River, which had been reserved by the secretary of the interior for a reservoir to store water for the irrigation of about 2,000,000 acres of arid lands in Colorado and the adjacent states. The reclamation service is now engaged upon 23 projects in Colorado and the adjacent states. The reclamation service is now involving an investment of $36,000,000 in reservoirs and canals, which will irrigate 2,500,000 acres of land in the arid state. It has surveyed the entire arid and semi-arid regions and has located for future operations about thirty other reservoirs for future construction at an estimated cost of $109,000,000, for the reclamation of about 4,000,000 acres of desert land. These locations have been withdrawn from entry by the secretary of the interior and reserved for the future. The entire fund available for reclamation purposes is now allotted but the money will all come back into the treasury as fast as the present operations are completed, and the reclaimed land is sold, when it will be used over and over again for a similar purpose in other localities.

Gore Canyon of the Grand river, or the Kremmling Reservoir project, as it is officially called, is one of the most extensive and important items in the reclamation program for the future, but there is no money available for its development at present, and it cannot be touched for several years. It was the intention of the reclamation service to get at it as soon as possible.

Material Development.
While the president is deeply interested in the work of the reclamation bureau, he takes the ground that its plans for future work should not be allowed to block the material development of the west, and that when they conflict with great important public improvements they must give way. Each case, however, will be decided upon its own merits whenever it may arise. If it shall appear to him that possible future interests of the irrigation service should be sacrificed to actual present railway extension he will order the reservations cancelled.

When I called his attention to his action in the case of the Gore Canyon the president said:

"Mr. Stewart impressed me very much, for he is a man of right probity, upon whose judgment I can depend."

BAD BREATH

"For months I had great trouble with my stomach and used all kinds of medicines. My tongue has been actually as green as grass, my breath having a bad odor. Two weeks ago a friend recommended Cascarets and after using them I can tell you they are the best thing I ever used. They work while you sleep."

pend. He said David H. Moffatt and associates are building a railroad to develop northwest Colorado, a territory of immense coal fields and an area of 10,000 square miles suitable to stock, crops and recreation. This road goes through to Salt Lake City, a distance of 500 miles, and calls for about $25,000,000. About $6,000,000 have already been expended. After the enterprise was in full swing the reclamation bureau of the government withdrew Gore Canyon on the surveyed route of the road, and the government proposed to build here a great dam and by the water so held to irrigate lands in California and Arizona, 1,200 miles distant.

A special meeting of the board of public works was held yesterday afternoon for the purpose of hearing plans for the remodeling of the city lighting plant. John W. Holmes, who has been employed to draw plans and superintend the work after it is started, presented verbal plans and was advised to report in a formal written report of recommendations at the next meeting.

Mr. C. E. Bradley, of Nashville, representing the Southern Bitulithic company, explained the delay in the street improvement work. He stated that it was due to sidewalk improvements and the contractors doing this contract. Thomas Bridges & Sons, will be pushed in the work. Mr. Bradley stated that he had been sent down to personally investigate the cause of delay.

A petition for water main extensions in Rowlandtown was returned by the water company, as it was not properly drafted and signed.

CLOSING ORDINANCE PASSES

The board of councilmen last night consumed over two hours in routine business. The saloon closing ordinance was passed, the sale of street car franchises ratified, and many other matters of importance acted on.

Councilmen Race Dipple and John Williamson were absent.

The matter of extending water mains on Mill street was received and filed.

The extension of water mains on several streets was reported completed. The report was received and filed.

The matter of extending water mains on North Thirteenth street to the Harahan addition was referred to the light and water committee.

Mayor Yeiser read a notice stating that a judgment had been entered by the appellate court in the suit of E. C. Terrell against the city of Paducah and others for $407.27, and on motion it was referred to the finance committee with power to act. This resulted from the improvement of Washington street to the river. The case had been in court since the administration of James M. Lang.

A report from the board of public works recommending that the Paducah Light and Power company be made to pay one-half the cost of putting a new bridge over Island Creek or to spend $2,500 to put the bridge in temporary repair. The report recommended that the offer of the traction company to pay for one-fourth of the cost of a new bridge be rejected. On motion the report was received and filed.

An ordinance for improving Jones street from Ninth street to Eleventh street was returned in order that the time of completion of the work be extended. The time of completion fixed in this ordinance was not for enough ahead to enable a contractor to do the work, as provided for in the ordinance.

Mayor Yeiser reported the sale of three street car franchises to the Paducah Light and Power company for $100 and costs of advertising. He read the contract made in the sale relative to certain conditions accompanying the sale. One was relative to the traction company moving tracks aside on North Tenth street if another railroad entered the city on that street. Mayor Yeiser stated that the contract read "steam railroad," and as he understood it the road which contemplates coming in to Paducah is an interurban road. He stated this merely to make it clear, and avoid further complications. The name of John S. Bleeker, manager of the traction company, was attached, and on suggestion Joseph L. Friedman signed the paper also. The contract and sale were ratified.

The bond of Contractors Patterson and Porteous, who built Broadway from First to Fifth street over five years ago, was released, the mayor being instructed to cancel the bond at once.

Milk License.

Mayor Yeiser stated he had prepared an ordinance which he desired to be passed. It was relative to the milk dealers' license tax.

Mayor Yeiser returned the "tuberculosis" ordinance signed.

Mayor Yeiser vetoed the "fuel" ordinance. He stated that the ordinance was illegal, citing several points in support of his position. He stated the ordinance conflicted directly with the charter. Mayor Yeiser stated when the technical defects were remedied, he would be only too glad to sign it. This ordinance makes it necessary to call for bids for "fuel," "stoves" and "supplies."

Mayor Yeiser stated that the city council did not have authority to place the matter of contracts such as provided in by the ordinance. The ordinance reads that the finance committee shall make such contracts.

Councilman Van Meter stated that he thought the council committees might make contracts as it did contract for repairing the city clock, painting the city hall, and making other such improvements.

The motion of Councilman Van Meter to pass the ordinance over the mayor's veto, was lost by a vote of 6 to 4. Councilmen Barnett, Duval Katterjohn, Kolb, Meyers and Oehl-schlaeger voting "nay."

The report of Treasurer John Do-ran, showing a balance in the treasury May 31, amounting to $68,705.07, was received and filed.

The report of the finance committee for May, showing a total expenditure of $12,680.60, was received and filed.

Officer James W. Clark, who was injured while on duty, asked that the city pay his doctor's bill, amounting to $65. The matter was favorably acted on.

A bill for $48, for twelve city directories, to be distributed among city officers, was presented, and favorably acted on.

An ordinance for sidewalks and gutters on South Fourth street from Norton to Husbands street, to be constructed of granite, was given first reading.

An ordinance repealing "an ordinance fixing and regulating a license tax on milk dealers" was given first passage. The object of this ordinance is to prevent the farmers from being excluded from the city—those who come to the city to sell milk, chickens, garden truck, etc. They are kept out of the city because those who come in vehicles are subject to license.

On motion the rule was suspended and the ordinance given second passage.

The ordinance compelling saloons to close at 12 o'clock at night and remain closed until 5 o'clock in the morning, was given second passage.

Extending Police Powers.

An ordinance giving police powers to the milk and meat inspector, market master, street inspector and other city officers, was given second passage.

An ordinance for the improvement of Washington street from First to Third street and Second street from Kentucky avenue to Washington street, was given second reading.

A petition for the grading and graveling of West Clay street, from Seventeenth street to the Terrell addition, was referred for an ordinance to be brought in at once for the improvement.

On motion it was ordered that Jarrett from Bridge street to Powell street, be improved by grading and graveling.

A petition for water mains on North Seventeenth street, was referred to the petitioners. It was not in proper form.

Island Creek Bridge.

Chairman Barnett of the public improvement committee, moved that the city build a new bridge over Island Creek at once. He did not approve of repairing the old bridge. The motion met with a second from Councilman Katterjohn. Councilman Kolb endorsed the move also.

The motion carried. Councilman Hill voting "nay." The matter was referred to the public improvement committee with instructions to proceed at once with preliminaries.

The report of Fire Chief James Wood for May was received and filed. The report showed that some new hose is needed, and this matter was referred to the fire and police committee with instructions to investigate and report back at the next meeting.

The report of Chief of Police James Collins for May, showing a total of $542.20, was received and filed.

Mike Iseman asked to be permitted to add another story to his frame house, which is in the fire limits, at Fourth and Washington streets. The request carried with it the endorsement of Fire Chief James Wood. The request was granted.

Leon Loeb asked for a reduction of theater license for his vaudeville theater on Broadway. He charges but 10 and 20 cents admission. His seating capacity is small and he does not think it fair to charge the same license as is charged. The Kentucky, which pays $100 a year. There is no ordinance providing for a smaller theater and on motion the management was permitted to go ahead with the show, the council in the meantime to bring in an ordinance covering the point, Loeb to make a deposit with the city each month.

Councilman Barnett urged to compel one thousand residents, actual county who are within the sewerage district to make sewer connections. No action was taken.

Several deeds and transfers to property in Oak Grove cemetery were ratified.

A certificate of ability of Ed Farley, Jr., who is the new milk and meat inspector, signed by local, reputable physicians, was filed.

The bond of Milk and Meat Inspector Ed Farley, Jr., was received and filed.

A petition from Wm. Deal to erect a band stand at the market house for summer concerts, was favorably acted on.

The report of the committee on rules and regulations for the council was read. The provisions are relative to the passage of ordinances, etc., all making it possible to facilitate business in the councilmanic board. The report was adopted.

The contract for printing two hundred books of rules for the city council at $9.50, was awarded to Charles M. Leake & Co.

City Engineer L. A. Washington was empowered to buy a new wagon for his department.

Cow Police Lycurgus Rice was instructed to keep hours during the night, and not do so much patrolling during the day. Some cow owners have been turning out cows at night and taking them up again early in the morning—before the cow police has gone to work.

The matter of new sidewalks on South Fifth street, from Kentucky avenue to Washington street, was referred.

Chief of Police James Collins stated he could secure a man to accompany a wagon to take up untaxed dogs for $2 a day.

The report was filed, no action being taken.

On motion the board adjourned.

Daily Thought.

"Differences of lot or of endowment are the necessary conditions of existence, and should excite neither anger nor bitterness."

In a speech delivered at a testimonial dinner given to Justice Brown, on the eve of his retirement from the supreme court, Justice John M. Harlan delivered himself of remarks that should sink deep in the consciousness of every citizen to be remembered by him when pessimism grips his soul. He said in part: "The American people are stronger today than they have ever been, in all the sterling qualities of true manhood. Their standard of right is higher than it ever was at any time in our past history. Their abhorrence of wrong and bad practices, whether in public or private life, among whatever classes, was never more marked than it is at this day. And that explains why it is apparently the entire population of the United States is in motion with the relentless purpose to uncover the vicious, immoral acts of those who have defied all law or whose aim in life seems to have been to accomplish selfish objects, without regard to the means employed to that end. Lawlessness has its source mainly in the neglect to enforce the law without respect of persons. We are having just now a revival of integrity and of right dealing in public, in private and in business life. Let the good work go on without favor to anyone, and it will not be long before not only the atmosphere in public business and in private life will become clear of all that offends, but the public will be reassured that this great and all-powerful American people are equal to any emergency that may arise in their history."

Something should be done by the board of public works towards alleviating the condition on Broadway between Tenth and Eleventh streets. The stagnant, scum-covered water in the gutter emits a sickening stench.

It was a wise man who, on being delayed by a slow associate, exclaimed in hopeless regret: "There, I have lost a minute."

There is a distinction between carrying away an idea and being carried away by an idea.

THE SOUTH SEEKS IMMIGRANTS.
 On Monday and Tuesday, June 4 and 5 representatives of the two Virginias, the two Carolinas, Georgia, Florida, Alabama, Mississippi, Louisiana and Tennessee will meet in New York and organize the Southern States Immigration Commission. As an evidence that this immigration idea has taken a firm hold on the minds of the people of those states, representatives of the railroads and of many of the more important industries in them are included in the delegations which will gather in New York.

There is sense in establishing a permanent headquarters of the Southern Immigration Commission in New York, which is the purpose of the organization. At New York about two-thirds of all the immigrants enter. The total immigration of the present calendar year will be in the neighborhood of 1,200,000. It may go to 1,300,000. The country is interested in having this immense flood of newcomers diffused among the districts which need them. These are the south and the west. At present more than half of the immigrants remain in the North Atlantic states, where the labor market is congested.

For several years the south has been making a bid for immigrants, and although it is getting more of them now than it did a short time ago, it is not getting 1-10th as many as it could utilize. Possibly the society which is about to be formed may divert a larger current of immigration to the south than has been seen thus far. The country will be glad to have the south succeed in its endeavor to make its section attractive to our new arrivals. The south has many avenues for profitable employment for more men than are likely to enter it in the next few years. It is growing with great rapidity, but it has been hampered thus far by lack of workers. Possibly the new immigration commission will supply some of this deficiency in laborers. The west will probably be able to take care of itself in bidding for immigration, but it could give employment to more of the newcomers than it has been getting in the past few years.

Matchless Workmanship.

Most diseases are of spinal origin. That is a characteristic generalization of Osteopathy in a nutshell, and is a contention that has never been disproved.

The Osteopathic diagnosis, and treatment are new and original, and percentage of cures have attracted wide attention. This is history that cannot be successfully challenged.

We apply in a new way and with new force, old principles that are a part of the recognized, but theoretical teachings of every school of practice, but in an unsystematic form.

You cannot study the anatomy of the spinal column without marveling that it so seldom gets out of order. It is the most matchless piece of workmanship in all mechanics, and the wonder is that it should, sometimes, from the way it is abused, do its work at all.

By all laws of physics, the spine is liable at any moment to get out of order; it is subject to slips, wrenches, pressures, deadlocks, sprains, contractions and congestions—any one of which will set up disorders, all of which require only an intelligent engineer to adjust to relieve and cure.

The Osteopath is that engineer. In just a few moments I can easily explain to you why and how Osteopathy is achieving such a wonderful success in curing all kinds of chronic and acute illnesses and I shall take great pleasure in doing so.

Just now you may have a touch of the Spring ailment, to which we Paducahans are heir. If so, let me tell you how easily, how quickly such ailments yield to the Osteopathic treatment.

YARD PUTS IT TO SHAME.

Judge Lightfoot Warned of Result of His Course.

The court house has been repaired and is anything but an unattractive building. The court house yard would not be recognized as the yard it was two years ago, and it is all due to the efforts of County Judge R. T. Lightfoot and the fiscal court.

The best illustration of the beauty of the court house yard can be summed up in a statement made Judge Lightfoot this morning. An admirer of the yard sought him out and said:

"Look here, judge, if you keep putting down concrete walks, and making this yard so beautiful, you will make us ashamed of the court house and will have to move it out and put up a new one, in keeping with the yard."

CONVENTION FOR MISSIONARY WORK

Memphis Conference Societies to Meet in Paducah.

Broadway Methodist Church Will Entertain One Hundred Delegates Next Week.

ELECTION OF NEW PRESIDENT

The annual meeting of the Woman's Foreign Missionary society of the Memphis conference will take place at the Broadway Methodist church June 12-14. There will be from 75 to 100 delegates, every church in the conference having representatives. The opening address will be delivered Tuesday night by the Rev. A. N. Hughlett, of the first church in Jackson, Tenn. The election of officers this year will be notable from the necessity of electing a president, as Mrs. Samuel Watson, of Memphis, who has been president for twenty-five years, died ten days ago. Mrs. T. B. King, of Memphis, the vice-president, will preside over the meeting.

Miss Alice Waters who has been a missionary in China for many years, will be present, and as many as twenty ministers are expected. Thursday night Mrs. Amelia Barnes, editor of "Our Little Workers," a juvenile paper, will address the younger societies in the church.

It has been suggested that the other denominations in the city give reports of the work of their missionary societies to show what Paducah does for foreign missions. It was stated that the missionary societies of all churches are the most active features today in the church organizations.

Syndicate Investment.

We offer a special opportunity for those who would like to join a syndicate and put in from $100 to $7,000, and in all probability make 50 per cent on the money in three years. We have 43 houses in Wooten's South Side Addition that we can sell for $24,000; $7,000 cash and the balance $200 per month, and as these houses have a gross rental value of $360 per month, it is probable that all it will cost the purchaser is the first payment, as the tenants will pay the rest. This makes a liberal allowance for losses, vacant houses and expenses. Six vacant lots will be included without extra charge in this proposition. We believe this is one of the best opportunities we have ever offered to investors. It is probable that the electric car line will go out Tennessee street through this addition and in this event this property would rise rapidly in value. It is an easy matter to make money out of the above proposition, and we will give any desired information concerning it to any one interested. Anyone having $100 or more to invest would do well to investigate this matter, and call on or telephone us, and it may be that the investment will pay three dollars for one.

A Secret

It aids nature a little, that's the only secret about it. We refer to Ayer's Hair Vigor. It feeds the hair, makes the scalp healthy. The hair stops falling out and all dandruff disappears. The result could not be different, for it's the natural way. And it is a splendid dressing, keeping the hair soft and smooth. Why not save what hair you have and get more at the same time? J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass.

WE wish to announce the arrival of the daintiest assortment of summer footwear for the ladies ever shown in Paducah. If there's anything new or dainty in Oxfords or Slippers we have it. White ones are bound to be more popular than ever this season. We have them in duck, kid and calf. The calf ones are really the most economical in the long run, for they don't scuff so easily and hold their shape and keep fresh and clean indefinitely. For the rest, we have the most fetching Oxfords and Slippers in gray, black and tan kid, suede and calf.

OPEN PUBLICITY

The Truest Guaranty of Merit.

OPEN TO EVERYBODY is the fullest information as to the properties and uses of the several ingredients entering into Dr. Pierce's family medicines. Not only are all the ingredients printed in plain English on each bottle wrapper, but a little book of extracts from all the different standard authorities of all the different schools of medical practice, extolling these several ingredients and giving their properties and uses, has been compiled by Dr. R. V. Pierce, and will be mailed free by him to the address of any one sending a postal card or letter to him, at Buffalo, N. Y., and requesting a copy of the same.

In this way the afflicted, who may think favorably of using these non-secret medicines, are taken into Dr. Pierce's full confidence and are informed as to the properties and uses of each of the several vegetable ingredients of which they are composed.

Thus you do not have to rely upon Dr. Pierce's recommendation alone as to the marvelous curative properties possessed by his "Golden Medical Discovery" for the cure of weak stomachs, dyspepsia, torpid liver, or biliousness, impure blood and kindred ailments, nor of his "Favorite Prescription" for the cure of weak, nervous, invalid women, for you have in addition the strongest kind of endorsement of each and every ingredient entering into the composition of these world-famous medicines by numerous leading medical writers of the several schools of practice. In fact nothing which Doctor Pierce has ever said in recommendation of these medicines is quite so strong and laudatory of their merits as what has indirectly been said of them through the numerous unqualified endorsements and recommendation of each of their several ingredients by the leading writers on Materia Medica.

Of course these endorsements were written from entirely disinterested motives and are therefore the more valuable. They were written to instruct medical practitioners in the properties and uses of the several ingredients which enter into Doctor Pierce's medicines, the writers not being aware that they were extolling and endorsing ingredients which are used in these medicines. Hence the great value of these highest possible endorsements, coming, as they do, from leaders of the medical profession in the matter of Materia Medica.

Among the well-known authorities will be found Drs. Bartholow, Hare, Johnson, Wood, King, Scudder, Hale, Coe, Ellingwood and many others.

The ingredients are all indigenous, or native, medicinal roots. Dr. Pierce believes that medicine can cure disease only as it assists Nature to overcome the abnormal or diseased conditions. For this assisting Nature is the best and only real remedy to be found in Nature's Laboratory. In the roots of medicinal plants found in this country, Providence has stored up most valuable, active, curative principles, which, when scientifically extracted and combined in just the right proportions, as in Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, are most effective in curing a long list of chronic or lingering and most obstinate diseases.

In chronic, bronchial, throat and lung affections, accompanied with hoarseness or loss of voice, cough, profuse expectoration and even bleeding from lungs, "Golden Medical Discovery" has proven a sovereign remedy.

In cases of weak stomach, indigestion, dyspepsia, ulceration of stomach or bowels, torpid liver, or biliousness, the "Golden Medical Discovery" has never been excelled as a tonic and invigorator which puts the affected organs in tune, and enables them to perform their proper functions. It purifies and enriches the blood, curing all manner of "humors," blood taints, scrofulous and skin affections.

In all irregularities and painful periods to which women are subject, also in leucorrhoea, or "female weakness," displacements, as prolapsus, anteversion and retroversion of the uterus, ulceration of uterus, inflammation of ovaries, and kindred maladies, Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription has more real cures to its credit than any other medicine put up and sold through druggists for the cure of this class of weaknesses and diseases.

When a woman takes "Favorite Prescription," she knows just what she is using. Dr. Pierce takes his patients into his full confidence. His medicines are not secret compounds, are not patent medicines, but the favorite prescriptions of a regular, graduated physician of large experience in actual practice.

You can not afford to experiment with your health by accepting and taking free "trial bottles" of Cheap John Fake Medicines, so freely given away in this country. Health is a heritage too sacred to be trifled with in that way. Take only Medicines of Known Composition—those made after formulae so choice that the makers take you fully into their confidence and feel that they can afford to tell you just what you are using when you employ their medicines.

Dr. Pierce never believed it necessary or advisable to use alcohol in the preparation of either his "Favorite Prescription" for weak women, or his "Golden Medical Discovery," the well-known alterative tonic, which is so largely used as a remedy for indigestion, torpid liver, bad blood and kindred ailments. Our forty years ago, he discovered that chemically pure, triple-refined glycerine is a far better solvent of most of the active principles residing in our native medicinal plants when used at proper and sustained temperature than is alcohol; and, furthermore, he found that a glyceric extract kept much better than an alcoholic one, and that the glycerine possessed intrinsic remedial value, being demulcent, nutritive and an effective, antiseptic and antiferment. Although costing somewhat more, Dr. Pierce predicts that glyceric medicinal extracts will, in the not distant future, largely replace alcoholic ones so generally prescribed by physicians and put out by proprietary or "patent medicine" manufacturers, as being more efficient and entirely free from the serious objection of making inebriates when used in lingering or chronic cases, where a somewhat protracted use of medicine is necessary no matter how good or well adapted the case it may be in order to obtain permanent results.

Doctor Pierce's Pleasant Pellets cure biliousness, sick and bilious headache, dizziness, costiveness, or constipation of the bowels, loss of appetite, coated tongue, sour stomach, windy belchings, "heartburn," pain and distress after eating, and kindred derangements of the liver, stomach and bowels. Put up in glass vials, tightly corked, therefore always fresh and reliable. One little "Pellet" is a laxative, two are cathartic. They regulate, invigorate and cleanse the liver, stomach and bowels.

A good medical book, written in plain English, and free from technical terms is a valuable work for frequent consultation. Such a work is Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser. It's a book of 100 pages, prettily illustrated. It is given away now, although formerly sold in cloth binding for $1.50. Send 21 cents, in one-cent stamps, to pay for cost of mailing only for paper-covered copy, addressing Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.; or 31 cents for an elegantly cloth-bound copy.

"Reasons Why"—Dyspepsia

Self-poisoning is the most common form of disease. Not with drug poisons, but with the poison made inside the body—uric acid.

Every good physician now knows that uric acid causes Dyspepsia, all stomach troubles and nine-tenths of all diseases.

So, avoiding disease or curing disease plainly depends on driving out the uric acid.

HOW URIC ACID CAUSES DISEASE

Improper food causes what your physician calls congestion.

He means that the tiny blood vessels in your stomach are affected and the blood is unable to pass through them.

So at once the little grains of uric acid in your blood become lodged and work their way into the tissues of the stomach.

The irritation and congestion that follows is named Dyspepsia, indigestion, ulcer of the stomach, etc. The cause is always uric acid.

This is the "Reason Why" of all stomach trouble. The cure is the removal of the uric acid. The proof is the thousands who have been cured.

URIC ACID SYMPTOMS

Sour stomach, belching, pain in the stomach, and poor digestion. These are the forerunners of serious stomach trouble. Headache, biliousness, backache, and menstrual disorders—all show uric acid to be at work.

R If you have any stomach trouble, cure yourself by driving out the cause of disease. Take LIFE PLANT. It is the common sense remedy—a natural tonic and solvent of uric acid.

Thieves Make Mark of Edward Hansen, of Kentucky Avenue.

There is a new "Mr. E. Z. Mark" in Paducah. His name is Edward Hansen, German, and he lives on Kentucky avenue near Fourth street. Mr. Hansen runs a boarding house and two nights ago suffered the loss of his stock of fowls. The following day—yesterday—he missed more property but this time it amounted to a great deal in value.

His fine gold watch and $7 in cash was taken from his room. The theft was committed in broad daylight and Mr. Hansen is at a loss to understand his position. He thinks that he is being made the mark of some clique of thieves and is preparing for them. The police have been unable to secure a clue to either robbery.

FINE RECEPTION BY THE FRESHMEN

Auditorium and Hallways Decorated for Occasion.

Juniors and Sophomores Entertain the Seniors and School Board Tonight.

SUPERINTENDENT LIEB IS ILL

One of the neatest and most enjoyable receptions ever given in school circles was that given the graduating class of '06 last night by the Freshman class. The reception was the first of a series for this week, and proved more successful than anticipated.

The hall on the auditorium floor was decorated in bunting of several different colors and the furniture was removed from the rooms to accommodate those present. The entire class was present and music was a feature of the evening. Refreshments were served and the first reception will set a high standard for the Juniors and Sophomores, who will give the graduates a reception tonight.

The Junior and Sophomore classes will receive tonight and the school board will be invited. Tonight the board will have a brief session, it is understood, and will adjourn in time to attend the reception.

Superintendent Ill.

Supt. C. M. Lieb is ill of malaria and unable to leave his bed. He was taken ill Saturday and while his condition is not serious, he may be confined several days.

On account of his illness the monthly and annual report combined will not be presented the school board tonight, but will have to be postponed until a future date.

School Board.

The school board meets tonight in regular monthly session to wind up the business of the term. Salaries for May were allowed at a called meeting last week, and there remains little to be done other than to select the teaching corps for next year. The committee had formulated a report to be presented the board, but the board may not ratify the report in its entirety.

THE MAN ON THE BOX

By HAROLD MacGRATH
Author of "The Gray Clerk," "The Puppet Crown"

Copyright, 1904, The Bobbs-Merrill Company.

"Scott Circle, and don't pommel that old nag's bones in trying to get there. I've plenty of time."

"I reckon I won't pommel him, sub. Skit! skit!" and the vehicle rattled out into broad Pennsylvania Avenue, but for the confusion and absurdity of its architectural structures, the handsomest thoroughfare in America.

Warburton leaned back luxuriously against the faded horse-hair cushion and lighted a cigar, which he smoked with relish, having had a hearty breakfast on the train. It was not quite nine o'clock and a warm October haze lay on the peaceful city. Here were people who did not rush madly about in the pursuit of riches. Rather they proceeded more soberly, even leisurely, as if they knew what the day's work was and the rewards attendant, and were content. Trucks, those formidable engines of commerce, neither rumbled nor thundered along the pavements, nor congested the thoroughfares. Nobody hurried into the shops, nobody hurried out. There were no scampering, yelling newsboys. Instead, along the curbs of the market sat bareheaded negro boys, some of them selling papers to those who wanted them and some sandwiched in between baskets of popcorn and peanuts. There was a marked scarcity of the progressive, intrusive white boy. Old negro mammies passed to and fro with the day's provisions.

Glancing over his shoulder, Warburton saw the capitol shining in the sun like some enchanted palace out of Wonderland. He touched his cap, conscious of a thrill in his spine. And there, far to his left, loomed the Washington monument, glittering like a shaft of opals. Some orderlies dashed by on handsome bays. How splendid they looked, with their blue trousers and broad yellow stripes! This was before the army adopted the comfortable but shabby brown duck. How he longed to throw a leg over the back of a good horse and gallop away into the great green country beyond.

The only things which moved with the hustling spirit of the times were the cables, and doubtless these would have gone slower but for the invisible and immutable power which propelled them.

But now he was passing the huge and dingy magic treasury building, round past the executive mansion with its spotless white stone, its stately portico and its plush lawns.

"Go slow, uncle; I haven't seen this place since I was a boy."

"Yes, sub. How d' y' like it? Wouldn't y' like to live in dat house, sub?"—the commodore grinned.

"One can't stay there long enough to please me, uncle. It takes four years to get used to it; and then, when you begin to like it, you have to pack up and clear out."

"It's de way dey goes, sub. We go eroun' Lafayette, er de yuh want t' see de wa, deap'tment, sub?"

"Never mind now, uncle; Scott Circle."

"Scott Circle she am, sub."

The old ark wheeled round Lafayette Square and finally rolled into Sixteenth street. When at length it came to a stand in front of a beautiful house, Warburton evinced his surprise openly. He knew that his brother's wife had plenty of money, but not such a plenty as to afford a house like this.

"Are you sure, uncle, that this is the place?"

"Dere's de Circle, sub, an' yuh can see de numb' for y' self, sub."

"How much do I owe you?"

"I reckon 'bout fifty cents 'll make it, sub."

Warburton gave him a dollar, marveling at the difference between the cab hire here and in New York. He grasped his case and leaped up the steps two at a bound, and pressed the bell. A prim little maid answered the call.

"Does Mr. John Warburton live here?" he asked breathlessly.

"Yes, sir."

"Fortunate John!" he cried, pushing past the maid and standing in the hall of his brother's household, unheralded and unannounced. "Jack!" he bawled.

The maid eyed the handsome intruder, her face expressing the utmost astonishment. She touched his arm.

"Sir!" she began.

"It's all right, my dear," he interrupted. She stepped back, wondering whether to scream or run.

"Hi, Jack! I say, you old henpecked, where are you?"

The dining-room door slid back and a tall, studious-looking gentleman, rather plain than otherwise, stood on the threshold.

(and I am always ready to back this statement with abundant proofs!) rushed down and literally threw herself into Mr. Robert's eager, outstretched arms.

"Nancy!"

"Bob! Bob! you wicked boy! You almost break our hearts. Not a line in two months!—How could you?—You might have been dead and we not know it!"—and she cried on his shoulder.

"Come now, Nancy; nonsense! You'll start the color running out of this tie of mine!" But for all his jesting tone, Mr. Robert felt an embarrassing lump wriggle up and down in his throat.

"Had your breakfast?" asked the humane and practical brother.

"Yep. But I shouldn't mind another cup of coffee."

And thereupon he was hustled into the dining-room and pushed into the best chair. How the dear women fussed over him, pressed this upon him and that; fondled and caressed him, just as if the beggar was worth all this trouble and love and affection.

"Hang it, girls, it's worth being an outlaw to come to this," he cried. He reached over and patted Nancy on the cheek, and pressed the young wife's hand, and smiled pleasantly at his brother. "Jack, you lucky pup, you!"

"Two years," murmured Nancy; "and we haven't had a glimpse of you in two long years."

"Only in photograph," said the homeless one, putting three lumps of sugar in his coffee because he was so happy he didn't know what he was about.

"And you have turned 28," said Kit, counting on her fingers.

"That makes you 24, Nan," Jack laughed.

"And much I care!" replied Nancy, shaking her head defiantly. I've a sneaking idea that she was thinking of me when she made this declaration. For if I didn't care, why should she?

"A handsome, stunning girl like you, Nan, ought to be getting married," observed the prodigal. "What's the matter with all these dukes and lords and princes, anyhow?"

An embarrassed smile ran around the table, but Mr. Robert missed it by several inches.

Jack threw a cigar across the table. "Now," said he, "where the deuce did you come from?"

"Indirectly from Arizona, which is a synonym once removed for war," Jack looked at his plate and laughed; but Mrs. Jack wanted to know what Bob meant by that.

"It's a word used instead of war, as applied by the late Gen. Sherman," Jack replied. "And I am surprised that a brother-in-law of yours should so far forget himself as to hint it even."

"By the way, Jack," said my hero, lighting the cigar and blowing the first puff toward the ceiling, his face admirably set with nonchalance, "do you know of a family named Annesley—Col. Annesley?" I knew it would take only a certain length of time for this question to arrive.

"Col. Annesley? Why, yes. He was in the war department until a year ago. A fine strategist; knows every in and out of the coast defenses, and is something of an inventor; lots of money, too. Tall, handsome old fellow."

"That's the man. A war volunteer?"

"No, a regular. Crippled his gun-fingers in some petty Indian war, and was transferred to the department. He was a widower, if my recollection of him is correct; and had a lovely daughter."

"Ah!" There was great satisfaction evident in this syllable. "Do you know where the colonel is now?"

"Not the faintest idea. He lived somewhere in Virginia. But he's been on the travel for several years."

Robert stirred his coffee and took a spoonful—and dropped the spoon.

"Pah! I must have put in a quart of sugar. Can you spare me another cup?"

"Annesley?" Nancy's face brightened. "Col. Annesley? Why, I know Betty Annesley. She was my roommate at Smith one year. She was in my graduating class. I'll show you her picture later. She was the dearest girl! How she loved horses! But why are you so interested?"—slyly.

"I ran across them coming home."

"Then you met Betty! Isn't she just the loveliest girl you ever saw?"

"I'm for her, one and indivisible. But hang my luck, I never came within a mile of an introduction."

"What? You, and on shipboard where she couldn't get away?" John threw up his hands as a sign that this information had overcome him.

"Even the captain shied when I approached him," said Robert, gloomily.

"I begin to see," said the brother. "See what?"

"Have a match; your cigar has gone out."

Robert relighted his cigar and puffed like a threshing-machine engine.

John leaned toward Nancy. "Shall I tell him, Nan?"

come an old maid, do you?"

"When did it happen?"—helplessly. How the thought of his sister's marrying horrifies a brother! I believe I can tell you why. Every brother knows that no man is good enough for a good woman. "When did it happen?" Mr. Robert repeated, with a look at his brother, which said that he should be held responsible.

"Last week."

Robert took in a long breath, as one does who expects to receive a blow of some sort which can not be warded off, and asked: "Who is it?" Nancy married? What was the world coming to, anyhow?

"Charlie Henderson,"—timidly.

Then Robert, who had been expecting nothing less than an English duke, let loose the flaming lions of his righteous wrath.

"Chuck Henderson?—that duffer?" (Oh, Mr. Robert, Mr. Robert; and after all I've done for you!)

"He's not a duffer!" remonstrated Nancy, with a flare in her mild eyes (How I wish I might have seen her as she defended me!) "He's the dearest fellow in the world, and I love him with all my heart!" (How do you like that, Mr. Robert? Bravo, Nancy! I may be a duffer, true enough, but I rather object to its being called out from the housestops.) And Nancy added: "I want you to understand distinctly, Robert, that in my selection of a husband you are not to be consulted."

This was moving him around some. "Hold on, Nan! Drat it, don't look like that! I meant nothing, dearie; only I'm a heap surprised. Chuck is a good fellow, I'll admit; but I've been dreaming of your marrying a prince or an ambassador and Henderson comes like a jolt. Besides, Chuck will never be anything but a first-rate politician. You'll have to get used to cheap cigars and four-ply whisky. When is it going to happen?"

"In June. I have always loved him, Bob. And he wants you to be his best man."

Robert appeared a bit mollified at this knowledge. "But what shall I do after that?" he wailed. "You're the only person I can order about, and now you're going the other side of the range."

"Bob, why don't you get married yourself?" asked Mrs. Warburton. With your looks you won't have to go far nor begging for a wife."

"There's the rub, sister mine by law and the admirable foresight of my only brother. What am I good for but ordering rookies about? I've no business head. And it's my belief that an army man ought never to wed."

"Marry, my boy, and I'll see what can be done for you in the diplomatic way. The new administration will doubtless be republican, and my influence will have some weight,"—and John smiled affectionately across the table. He loved this gay lad opposite, loved him for his own self and because he could always see the mother's eyes and lips. "You have reached the age of discretion. You are now traveled and a fairly good linguist. You've an income of $4,500 and to this I may be able to add a berth worth $2,000 or $3,000. Find the girl, lad; find the girl."

"Honestly, I'll think it over, Jack."

"Bob, there's a ball at the British embassy to-night. You must go with us."

"Impossible!" said Robert. "Remember my leg."

"That will not matter," said Mrs. John; "you need not dance."

"What, not dance? I should die of intermittent fever. And if I did dance, my leg might give out."

"You can ride a horse all right," said John, in the way of argument.

"I can do that easily with my knees. But I can't dance with my knees. No, I shall stay at home. I couldn't stand it to see all those famous beauties, and with me posing as a wall-flower."

"But what will you do here all alone?"

"Play with the kid, smoke and read; make myself at home. You still smoke that Louisiana, Jack?"

"Yes,"—dubiously.

"So, now, don't let me interfere with your plans for to-night. I haven't been in a home in so long that it will take more than one night for the novelty to wear off. Besides, that nurse of yours, Kit, is bound to look at,—a bit of the rogue in his eye."

"Bob!"—from both women.

"I promise not to look at her; I promise."

"Well, I must be off," said John. "I'm late now. I've a dozen plans for coast defenses to go over with an inventor of a new carriage-gun. Will you go with me, while I put you up at the Metropolitan, or will you take a shopping trip with the women?"

"I'll take the shopping trip. It will be a sensation. Have you any horses?"

"Six."

"Six! You are a lucky pup; a handsome wife, a bouncing boy, and six horses! Where's the stable?"

"In the rear. I keep only two stablemen; one to take care of the horses and one to act as groom. I'm off. I've a cracking good hunter, if you'd like a leg up. We'll all ride to Chevy Chase Sunday. By-by, till lunch."

Mr. Robert immediately betook himself to the stables, where he soon became intimately acquainted with the English groom. He fussed about the harness-room, deplored the lack of a McClelland saddle, admired the English curbs, and complimented the men on the cleanliness of the stables. The men exchanged sly smiles at first, but these smiles soon turned into grins of admiration. Here was a man who knew a horse from his oiled hoofs to his curried forelock.

"This fellow ought to jump well," he said, patting the sleek neck of the hunter.

WHY EIGHT-DAY

MALT IS BEST

This Process Gets All of the Food Value of the Barley Into the Malt.

The usual four-day process of making malt for brewing may be compared to the unnatural rapid growth of grain planted in midsummer. It makes malt quickly, but at the sacrifice of the vital food quality of the grain.

Malt, as most of our readers probably know, is the life, the substance of beer, and the food value of any beer depends on the richness of the malt from which it is made.

Pabst exclusive eight-day malt is made in Nature's own way, by slow growth of the barley. All of the food value of the barley is thus retained in Pabst eight-day Malt, and makes Pabst Blue Ribbon Beer the richest beer in food strength.

Pabst Blue Ribbon Beer is always pure and clean. The choicest hops and chemically pure water are used with Pabst eight-day malt in the brewing. All the money in the world could not buy better, purer ingredients. The entire Pabst process is famous among physicians and scientists for its positive cleanliness. From the mashing of the eight-day malt until the finished product is poured into your glass Pabst Blue Ribbon Beer never comes in contact with anything that is not absolutely clean. It is fermented in sealed tanks into which no impurity can enter. It is run through sterilized tubes and pipes, stored for months in sterilized hermetically sealed storage tanks and pasteurized after being bottled.

This exclusive process places Pabst Blue Ribbon Beer beyond the possibility of contamination. It comes to you perfect in age, purity and strength, the best beer brewed.

PERMANENT BOARD IN NEW YORK CITY

Southern States Immigration Commission Recommends.

Tentative Plan for Diverting Stream of Immigration to Southern States.

EIGHT GOVERNORS RESPOND

New York, June 5.—The southern states immigration commission, which includes among its members representatives appointed by the governors of eight southern states, met and organized in this city. The purpose of the commission is to promote immigration in the south. The states were represented as follows:

Kentucky, D. W. Coons; Georgia, David Robinson; Alabama, P. P. Hunter; Louisiana, Chas. Schuler; Virginia, C. E. Miller; West Virginia, Max Robinson; North Carolina, Alex. Hepler; Maryland, J. G. Schoenfarber. Others present were United States Immigration Commissioner Watchorn, J. C. Horton, of the Savannah, Ga., board of trade, Geo. B. Edmunds, of the Charleston, S. C., chamber of commerce; Edmund D. Brown, of the Albany, Ga., business league, and representatives of the Seaboard Air Line, Old Dominion Line, Southern railway and other transportation companies. Tomorrow the commission will visit Ellis Island.

The committee on organization reported a tentative plan of organization which provided that the committee be composed of three delegates from each of the southern states to be appointed by the governors, and that the executive board consist of fifteen members. It is proposed also that the representatives of transportation, commercial, industrial, mercantile and agricultural organizations shall be eligible to membership. The plan provided further for the establishment of a permanent bureau in New York City with a resident chairman.

LIBRARY PRIVILEGES

Will Be Extended to Country People Near Paducah.

At the last meeting of the library board it was decided to give residents of the county within three miles of the city, who are city tax-payers, the privilege of drawing books from the library. As it was, suburban residents were unable to draw books and city property owners who lived in the county were also out of reach of the library. This new ruling will enable anyone within that circumference to draw books after procuring cards properly endorsed.

ALL SICK WOMEN SHOULD READ MRS. FOX'S LETTER

In All Parts of the United States Lydia
E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound
Has Effected Similar Cures.

Many wonderful cures of female ills are continually coming to light which have been brought about by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and through the advice of Mrs. Pinkham, of Lynn, Mass., which is given to sick women absolutely free of charge. The present Mrs. Pinkham has for twenty-five years made a study of the ills of her sex; she has consulted with and advised thousands of suffering women, who to-day owe not only their health but even life to her helpful advice.

Mrs. Fannie D. Fox, of 7 Chestnut Street, Bradford, Pa., writes:

Dear Mrs. Pinkham: "I suffered for a long time with female trouble, and finally was told by my physician that I had a tumor. I did not want to submit to an operation, so wrote you for advice. I received your letter and did as you told me, and to-day I am completely cured. My doctor says the tumor has disappeared, and I am once more a well woman. I believe Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is the best medicine in the world."

The testimonials which we are constantly publishing from grateful women establish beyond a doubt the power of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to conquer female diseases.

Women suffering from any form of female weakness are invited to promptly communicate with Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass. She asks nothing in return for her advice. It is absolutely free, and to thousands of women has proved to be more precious than gold.

THE HENRIETTA GETS INTO COURT

Suits are Filed to Dissolve Steamboat Partnership.

John S. Summers Claims That the Firm Is Indebted to Him in Large Sum.

ACTIONS FOR DAMAGES FILED

Attorneys Wheeler, Hughes and Berry today filed in circuit court a suit to settle partnership of John S. Summers and Arthur A. Peck, owners of the steamer Henrietta, and a fleet of barges. The pleadings are voluminous and cover the business of the firm since organization in 1903.

"The suit was brought for the purpose of dissolving the partnership," Attorney Wheeler stated, "and also for the appointment of a receiver to take charge of the business. The firm was organized in 1903 and owns the steamer Henrietta, eight barges and other floating property. The firm has outstanding debts amounting to about $3,000. We allege in our petition that the partnership is not run on an equal footing, that Peck had not made settlements when desired and that the firm owes Summers something like $3,000.

"We ask that a receiver be appointed to take charge of the business and to sell the property, to pay the debt Summers alleges the firm owes him, to restrain Peck from collecting any debts held by the firm or from participating in the business."

About $15,000 in all is involved in the litigation. Both the plaintiff and the defendant reside in Paducah.

Suits for Damages.

M. T. Spann, administrator of the estate of Mattie Averitt today filed suit against the Illinois Central Railroad company for $2,000, alleged damages for the death of Mrs. Averitt. Mrs. Averitt was struck by an Illinois Central train at a crossing in the county June 14, 1905, and killed. The suit alleges that the accident was due to the negligence of the Illinois Central in the operation of its trains.

Two suits were filed against the Paducah Traction company, both for the same amount, $2,610. S. H. Jewell is plaintiff in one and Samuel Spencer in the other. They were riding in a buggy near Tenth and Trimble streets last April. They were struck by a street car and both bruised and shaken up. One sustained a broken rib or two and the other a dislocated shoulder.

John Kirk filed suit against Ada Kirk alleging abandonment. They married in September, 1902, and separated in July, 1905.

Police Court.

George Riffin, colored, was fined $30 and costs in police court this morning for administering corporal punishment to his wife. Walter Fortson, colored, used profanity in profusion and did not seem particular where he used it. He gave a demonstration of his swearing abilities on Broadway and this morning paid the license tax—$10 and costs—to Jas. Collins, chief of police. Joseph Quinn, white forgot whether he was drunk last night and was fined $1 and costs for his faulty memory. He forgot being carried into the station house.

IN BANKRUPTCY

In the case of Moses Schwab, the district court at Louisville affirmed the decision of Referee Bagby, allowing the claim of Mrs. Schwab for $2,600, over the appeal of the creditors. The creditors motion that Schwab pay the trustees $10,000 was overruled by the district court.

The case of Joseph L. Woodward was set for June 15 in the office of the referee.

Today Referee Bagby went to Murray, Ky., to try the claim of the Christian church for $500 against the estate of the bankrupt L. C. Linn, to which exceptions have been filed. Miss Kirchoff the stenographer accompanied him.

In the case of Marmaduke Sale the referee overruled the recommendation to discharge of the bankrupt on specification of objection to same.

In the case of Thomas Reeves on the specification of objections to bankrupt's discharge, the referee recommended that the discharge be granted.

Leah Daniel's Will.

The will of Leah Daniel's has been filed in county court for probate. The instrument is dated April 23, 1906, and witnessed by J. W. Campbell and Margaret Manion. A debt of $30 to her grandson, Jack Fletcher, was provided for and her property, on Thirtieth street was ordered sold and one-fourth given to Matilda Fletcher and Amanda Small, another fourth to Anthony Fletcher and the last fourth to be divided between Angie Black

MANY APPLICANTS.

Class of Twenty Will Be Examined for Clerks and Carriers.

Tomorrow applicants for positions as clerk and carrier in the civil service, Paducah postoffice department, will be examined at the postoffice by Fred B. Ashton, civil service examiner.

"There are twenty applicants, the largest class I ever had since I was appointed examiner here over eleven years ago," Mr. Ashton stated. "The government positions draw many applicants, particularly in this district, and generally there are large classes. The popularity of civil service seems to have made wonderful strides lately."

Mr. Ashton will from week to week during this month have examinations in different departments of the service. This morning an authority for more examinations was received. The subjects are civil engineer and superintendent of construction, July 5-6; railroad transportation agent, July 5; medical interne, male, government hospital for the insane, July 5-6.

Petty Thefts Uncovered.

Several petty thefts have of late been discovered at the plant of the Paducah Coöperage company. It is thought boys are guilty and warrants will be issued probably.
